This John married twice. Since we do not know for sure if Elizabeth Lockwood was the mother of Nathaniel, will add another family group sheet which may include more of the family. It is pretty certain that she is the mother of the above three children.

John married a "Mary" and that is all that we have for her after the death of Elizabeth Lockwood. Elizabeth died sometime before 1784 as she is named in her father's will as deceased with children.

We do not have with certainty the children of his second marriage although we do believe, from the census records, that there were several daughters. From local Pennsylvania records we find the possibility of a Betsey, a Sarah, and a Lydia who may all be John's daughters. And there was possibly another daughter too who lived in PA. At one time we find 4 females besides John's wife, but no other name has arisen besides Betsey, Sarah and Lydia. So on the back of this sheet will add the second family group sheet that would pertain to the family after they moved from Connecticut to the Wyoming Valley in Pennsylvania.

William C. Hollopeter was in Company C, 88th

Regiment of the Indiana Volunteer Infantry and was made a Captain during the Civil War.

From the History of Cedar Creek County: CAPT. WILLIAM C. HOLLOPETER is a son of Rev. Andrew Hollopeter, who was a native of Pennsylvania and a minister of the Gospel in the Methodist Episcopal Church for nearly fifty years. His mother's maiden name was Catherine Edmonds, Ohio being her native state.

William C. was the eldest of seven children, three yet living in Allen County and one, a sister, living in DeKalb County of this state. A brother, still living in this county, was a veteran soldier in the Eleventh Indiana Volumteer Infantry during the late war. The subject of our sketch was born in Wayne County, Ohio, August 24, 1833. In youth he had moderate opportunities, only, for acquiring an education. He improved well such opportunities, however, thus preparing himself to act a practicle part in life's dealings. His father, with family, removed from Ohio to this county in March 1847, making a choice of settling in Cedar Creek Township. Farming was their pursuit, and William C. continued with his parents, aiding at this vocation, until the summer of 1854 when he became of age. (from 1880 History of Allen Co.)

Notes

Hans Adam Shilling

Cheryl Milukas genealogy says that in a DeKalb County, IN, book it said Hans Shilling immigrated from Rhine in Germany?? And gave the date of October 11, 1732. Perhaps that is the date the ship either left or landed?? Possibly to the port of Philadelphia. Hans lived in Lancaster County, PA.

Cheryl gives the name of Joan E. Cantrell, 2435 Bonnie Dell Drive, Library , PA, 15129, phone 412-650-5896. "She thinks perhaps the other children were taken by Indians".

Another version goes like this: He emigrated to PA with many brothers. Some of his brothers were captured by the Indians. He is listed as a resident of Lancanster Co., PA. He arrived in America on October 11, 1732 among the Palatines imported on the ship, "Pleasant", J. Morris, Master from Rotterdam, last from Deal, numbering in all 150 passengers. The Palatines came from the region of the Rhine, Germany. Several of his children were carried off by the Indians. Records show that son's John and Jacob sold a farm in Cumberlin Co, PA."

Source: Ruth (Shorb) Roderick, Sept. 25, 1972

He served in the Revolutionary Army as a Privatwe, Continental Line, August 1777-1783.

Notes

John Shilling

Joseph's grandfather was John Shilling, born September 1753 in Cocalico Township, Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania, died September 1804 in Letterkenny Township, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, servied as a Private in the War of Independence from 1777 to August 1783. John Shilling married Barbara Oberlin, whose father, Adam Oberlin, also served in the Continental Army. He was a Sergeant in Captain Gear's Company of the 9th battalion of Pennsylvania. To the marriage of John and Barbara were born seven children, Catherine, Adam, John, Margaret, Samuel, Jacob and Peter, all of whom by 1825 re-settled in Stark County, Ohio.

There was a family legend that Adam's father (which appears to be John) was a tailor and also a Methodist preacher. Also says that he was married for the 2nd time when he was 100 years old and did not die until he was 118!!! This must be just a legend as we have his birth date as 1753-1804 which would make him only 51 years old. Perhaps this rumor relates to someone else in the family, but apparently not the father of Adam. Hans Adam Shilling was born 1708 and died 1796 so would have been 88 at the time of his death. And Adam himself would have been 89, so not sure where the rumor came from or who it pertains to. It was pretty far out anyway, but perhaps somewhere back in the family this was the case for one of the Shillings.

From DeKalb County History, 1837-1987 we find: "Hans Adam Shilling's name appears in heads of family. It is found in the records of Cumberland County that two of his sons, JOHN and Jacob, and their wives, Barbara and Katheleen, sold a farm of 114 3/4 acres for 700 pounds in 1794, which they had purchased in 1772. They were Hopewell Township farmers."

.....

From the Genealogy of Greg Lasley we find:

Johannes "John" Shilling, born on August 6, 1753 in Lancaster Co., PA. Johannes died in Letterkenny Twp., Franklin, PA, on September 9, 1804; he was 51. He was christened October 14, 1753, New Providence, PA.....John was a Revolutionary War Veteran.

In 1788 when Johannes was 34, he married Barbara Oberlin, daughter of Johan Adam Oberlin (1745-c. 1812) and Mary Margaret "Eve" Ensminger (1747- c 1812) in Lancaster Co., PA. Barbara, born c. 1772 in Lancaster Co., PA. Barbara died in Letterkenny Twp., Franklin Co., PA in April 1816. She was 44.

Interesting paragraph in a book on the Revolutionary War soldiers:

DANIEL SHILLING was a private under Capt Conrad Snider, 1780-81. In the will of Adam Stump (dated 1801) he names his daughter Elizabeth, as the wife of DANIEL SHILLING. It is probably that Daniel Shilling left Franklin County, PA, early, as a Shilling descendant writes from Illinois, of a BARBARA who married John Robinson. Barbara is said to have TWO BROTHERS carried off by the Indians. Also an ADAM SHILLING was born in Franklin Co., PA, Feb 11, 1792 (OUR ADAM), his parents being JOHN and BARBARA OBERLIN SHILLING. She further says that one captive boy carried off by the Shawnee Indians later came back with the Indians to see his people at Falling Spring. Old Franklin countians would add that they came to visit the graves of their ancestors, adjoining the Falling Spring Graveyard, at Chambersburg. (Penn. Archives, 5th Ser., Vol 6, pages 87, 119)

Notes

Adam Shilling

Adam Shilling and Mary Roan were said to be natives of Pennsylvania, of German origin, and were among the early settlers of Stark County, Ohio. Adam must have purchased land in Section 19, DeKalb County, Concord Township, before 1850, and though he did not move there with his family, Solomon did. Also two others of the Adam Shilling family came also. Joseph and Mary who married George Houk. Apparently Adam died here in DeKalb County, but he was buried back in Stark County, as his grave is there, along with his wife's.

So if he was here it was probably for a visit. (The 1880 census shows that Adam was living here with Solomon at that time.) Probably the question is settled by a biography of Stark Co., OH of Daniel, Adam's youngest son. It says "Adam, the father, lives among his children, alternating between Indiana and Ohio." So he must have been with one of the Indiana children when he died.

From Cheryl Milukas genealogy of the Shillings, she has that Adam was a farmer and that he also preached the gospel. Also that he had a 3-year scholarship to Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio.

Also that he might have been born in Franklin County, PA, or Cocalico Township, Lancaster Co., PA

Has that Adam emmigrated to Stark County, Ohio, in 1816

Adam's birth date and death date, as well as wife Mary's, are on their tombstone in Sixteen Reformed Cemetery, Stark County, Ohio.

From the History of the Shilling Family that was in the possession of Eunice Zehr says this about Adam: "Great grandfather Adam was born in Stark County, Ohio (mistake) and married Ethel Roan. He was a methodist preacher and a tailor and had 4 children and died at 96." Many errors. Adam was born in PA, married Mary Roan tho she may have been Mary Esther or Mary Ethel, he was a preacher, and had 8 children, and he was 89 years old when he died.

Solomon Shilling

Solomon Shilling, from History of DeKalb County: Solomon Shilling, one of the most successful and enterprising citizens of Concord Township, was born in Stark County, Ohio, March 15, 1823, a son of Adam and Mary (Roan) Shilling. He was reared and educated in his native county, remaining on his father's farm til 1850, when he came to DeKalb County, Indiana, and settled on 160 acres of wild land which his father had previously entered from the Government, on section 19, Concord Township. He built a cabin into which he moved his family and began to clear and improve his land. He has been an energetic and hard working man, and has accumulated a large property, adding to his land from time to time and now has 400 acres all well improved. For the past thirty years in addition to farming he has been engaged in buying and shipping live stock, being the oldest stock dealer in the county. In 1872 Mr. Shilling was elected Township Trustee and in 1874 was re-elected, serving four years. He and his wife are members of the Methodist Protestant church. They have a family of 12 children, eleven of whom are living -- Daniel, J.R., William, Mary E., Sarah A., Adam, Francis, Hiram E., John, Vienna L., and Dora. A daughter died in infancy. In

My comment: I would assume that the Before dates given were probably the dates on which the child was either baptised or recorded into the church records. Probably baptism but as yet do not have the church name.

Johann Arnold Rudolph Klinker also has a "question mark" after his name.

My comment: I would assume that the Before dates given were probably the dates on which the child was either baptised or recorded into the church records. Probably baptism but as yet do not have the church name.

There is also a "question mark" on Gerd's name as if she could not be sure this was correct.
Perhaps a better understanding of the German language and the way the named their families might be a big help here. Sometimes like the word "Johann" was given to every male child before his other name meaning it may mean "son" or something and not the common "John" that we think of. Several other families in this FTM also have the same, such as Johann George and Johan Joseph who were of the DeLong family, and also find lots of Johanns in the Doll family. The DeLongs were German and the Dolls may have been or Swiss.

Gerd may be Gerhard or Gerhart as noted later in the names. Note that several were given the name of Ernst also and most had 4 different names probably to distinguish them from the earlier generations or from their cousins who probably lived nearby. Again a study of German names might be helpful in this area.

Notes

Johan Heinrich Klinker

Much of the German genealogy of this family has been found on the internet on IGI of the LDS church. Susan Colvin has worked on it.
Debbie Eidson has also worked on it. I believe she has checked the records at LDS. So not sure where the original records came from. Perhaps from the actual church records. May be errors, remembering that they were in German in the original, transcribed by human hands and eyes.

Debbie sent me the page that lists Johan Heinrich Klinker. We have transcribed this much. #30
Anno 1704, March 9, KLINKER _____, Johan Heinrich Susc. _____ _____

Actual translation by a German friend of Debbie's
"1704.....Line 30 in German.....den Maerz 9
Klinkers Kind genannt Johann Henrich, susceptor Winich Sohn"

In words we more understand: "March 9, Klinker's child. He was named Johann Henrich. The Godfather was Winich's son."

.....

Also there is a page dated 1702: #55
May 21, KLINKER _____, Ernestina Dorthea Susceptrix Doctoria _____ _____
_____ _____

Actual Translation:
"1702, line 55 in German.....den Mai 21
Klinkers Kind genannt Ernestina Dorothea, susceptrix Doctoria Kochs juengste Tochter Ernestina"

In English: May 21, 1702.....Klinker's child. She was named Ernestina Dorothea. The Godmother was Ernestina who was the youngest daughter of the teacher Koch.

New translations sent by e-mail from Debbie, Sept. 27, 2002

The names were transcribed by Debbie who has seen enough Klinker names to recoginze them, but the other names are harder to distinguish.
The Susceptrix was probably a Godmother, as Susceptor in the dictionary was Godfather. If so then it could just be a relative and not the parents of the child. Makes it more difficult to find who they belong to

Family Group Sheet for Johan Heinrich Klinker

even after we get the names right. Debbie is working on it. It is possible then that this Ernestina might be a sister to Johan Heinrick????

The very earliest similar name we have found is in Family Search IGI

Henrich Klinckert
marriage to Mechtild Kettelkampff on November 25, 1660 at Evangelisch, Lengerich, Westfalen, Preussen

This is the same place that we find the rest of the family so this man might be one or two generations back from what Debbie has researched so far. More info needed on this.

Copies of these records are found in my Klinker book under LDS, Genforum papers. I took these off apparently 8-15-2002. This may have been after Debbie's research was completed and I had her names already. But most of the heads of the family are there.

My comment: I would assume that the Before dates given were probably the dates on which the child was either baptised or recorded into the church records. Probably baptism but as yet do not have the church name.

My original information on this family had a "Menna" listed which I had assumed was his wife.
Also in the obituary of son, Henry, our emmigrant to America, the names of his parents were listed as

Henry and Menna Klinker, so apparently that was true. We can resolve the name of Henry, Henrich and Ernst because at least "Henrich" is listed as part of his name.....but the name of Menna needs to be pulled from Christine Elsabein or there is another generation we have mislaid somewhere in this genealogy. Or what Susan has come up with may not be substantiated.

So would assume the parents of Henry were "Henry and Menna" as stated in his obit. Surely the family knew the names of their grandparents in Germany.

Other Klinker families that have come to the US that may have a connection are: #1

"William H. Klinker, born Dec. 10, 1838 in Germany and came to America with his parents, Harmon and Melissa Klinker in 1849. William married Mary J. Coyer of Lawrence Co., Ohio, dau. of John Coyer (or Coye). William's parents both died in 1882. He had a farm of 220 acres and raised stock."

Possible Harmon could be Herman. And of course William would be Wilhelm in the older language.

One other thing of interest might be the place of the marriage. Whether this marriage or the marriage of the parents, or of the marriage of Henry and Mary, I cannot be sure but the researcher states this: "The church records can be found in Kirchenbuchduplikat, 1815-1874, Evangelische Kirche Lengerich (Kr. Techlenburg). There is a copy in the Morman library (can be rented as Debby did). The church, which also seemed to be the reigning government at the time, controlled who could marry who depending on status and so forth. The only loophole out of an arranged marriage was that the couple was obviously pregnant or had a child together already." Perhaps a lot of people took this route to be able to marry the person of their choosing. These tight controls plus the controls over the young men who were sent into the military at the government's whim, was a reason for many to leave the country.

Vol. 16, page 72, Jan. 21, 1768, JOHN FITCH of Norwalk, to my sister ELIZABETH KING, wife of DAVID KING, 16 acres at Poplar Plain.

ELIZABETH, wife of DAVID KING 2/3 of homestead, house and barn. Each heir got 1/2 of the widow's thirds in the homestead that she held in her son, Nathaniel's estate for life. (this seems to show that the distribution was of the estate of NATHANIEL son of JOHN and ELIZABETH. Possiby the date of 1786 is correct as the distribution may not have happened until the death of the mother ELIZABETH ELIS.)

The above land is an important proof in the finding out which John Fitch married Elizabeth Beers, and who this John's father was. Note that Nathaniel Fitch is giving to his son, John Fitch, in the year 1742, 15 acres on Popple Plains or Poplar Plains, just south of Chestnut Hill (where Samuel Fitch is living).
Samuel Fitch was to help raise John's children when he passed away in 1748 and the children were still minors. This same land is then given or passed around between his son, John Fitch and daughter, Elizabeth who married David King. It may have first belonged to son Nathaniel who then died in 1766, or perhaps was the 16 acres given to his daughter in his will, and after that deeded to John and he deeded it to his sister Elizabeth, and it went back and forth a couple of times. This may be the very land that was given to Nathaniel and John by their grandfather, Thomas Fitch "lying eastward towards the Sacotuck River" as found in the will of Thomas Fitch 1612-1704.

100 acres worth 800

John Beers said he sold this to Nath I but the deed was lost apparently.
Releasing it to Nath II

In 1725 Nath I sold to John Beers
6 acres for 6 pounds in undivided land, his choice an exchange perhaps?

Did they exchange lands?
No record of a deed back to Nath. — perhaps this was the lost deed?

1795.....Back and Forth on the land situation. Tried to pass the Intrusion Act saying that PA could not act against the CT settlers who had been there prior to the 1782 Trenton Decree.

1799.....Compromise Act of 1799; The CT settlers were to pay for the land according to quality. The PA claimants would get interest bearing certificates. Claims were to be filed by Jan. 1, 1801 or you would be ejected.

1800.....David King found also in Wyoming Co., PA census

1803.....All surveys done in the 17 townships. You had to file a claim. We find that both John and son, Gideon, filed in 1801, John for 300 acres and Gideon for 600 and the place written on the claim is the same place they had settled.

There is no indication from the writing of this story that the place of land was changed. At least not from the time they settled in 1788. This is where John made claim and this was where he lived on the land and it was passed down to his son, Nathaniel and where our Nathaniel was born.

ELIZABETH, wife of DAVID KING 2/3 of homestead, house and barn. Each heir got 1/2 of the widow's thirds in the homestead that she held in her son, Nathaniel's estate for life. (this seems to show that the distribution was of the estate of NATHANIEL son of JOHN and ELIZABETH. Possiby the date of 1786 is correct as the distribution may not have happened until the death of the mother ELIZABETH ELIS.)

Isaac W. Shelton was another and he joined the British on Long Island. After the war he was allowed to live in Bristol and gained quite a bit of property.

Tories continually carried on illicit trade between CT and Long Island. They carried off Tory recruits for the British and Tory families with large quantities of provisions that were sadly needed here, and much of this work was done under a British flag of truce.

Families were divided.

Moses Dunbar was hung for high treason and his father was a firm Patriot. They were bitterly opposed to each other.

After the war, many of the Tories returned, entered into public life, voted and held office
In 1784 New Haven voted to readmit the Tories to the town. So the Patriots and the Tories did dwell together in peace and harmony, in contrast to the Revolutionary times.

Apparently the General Assembly, Governor and Council of Safety were ready to forgive and give leniency and mercy.

1774

Stephen Sears of Sharon and Lt. Ebenezer Orvis of Farmington were published as public enemies. Lt. Orvis, Mrs. Lydia Orvis and Hannah Andruss had been using the detested tea!!

Dec, 1774

Nehemiah Royce and Matthias Leaming voted against the doings of the Cont. Congress
In 75 Leming was advertised as an open enemy
Royce, who had been prevented from sending his children to school, was not as the evidence was not sufficient, but in May of 1777 he was again on the list.
Mathias' s brother Jeremiah was the Norwalk preacher who went off with the British.
Mathias is buried at a cemetery in Farmington which says he is "now beyond persecution, the Life of Man is Vanity".

1775, May

CT passed an act to gather troops

1775, July

A brig owned by Josiah Winslow, royalist of Boston, was forced into Stonington Harbor with 10,000 gallons of molasses on board. The people of Norwich captured it for the state. Referred to as "tory molasses" it proved a comfort for the Continental Army.

1775, December

CT passed and "act for restraining and punishing persons who are inimical to the Liberties of this and the rest of the United Colonies" . Also the confiscation of property.

1776, May

"if these infernal emenies are suffered to proceed in their hellish schemes, our ruin is certain, but if they are destroyed the power of Hell and Britain will never prevail against us.

1776, June

Act to include all real and personal estates of convicted Tories

1776, July

Act to stop travel of those who might be inimical

1776, October

Death with conviction of high treason

1776, October

Selectmen may confine or remove any persons they judge to be inimical and he must pay the costs involved.

1777, January

Some of the convicted Tories were permitted to return home upon giving bond of 1,000 each for their good behaviour and promise not to do anything against the US again. Nathan Fitch, Frank Smith, Gold Hoyt, Stephen Keller, and John Betts of Norwalk were in this group. We still find Nathan Fitch on another Tory list in 1780/81.

1777, February 24

Day appointed for Tories to bring their cases before the General Assembly. Several were released and permitted to go home including Garner Olmstead and William Fitch Garner finds himself again on the 1780/81 Tory suspect list

1777, May

May be taken for service to pay off their indebtedness to the country

1777, August

None taken could get out on bail, but must stay imprisoned until delivered by due course of law.

1777, October

No person could be an administrator on any estate til he has taken an oath of fidelity and if no oath will be taken there can be no transfer of any property, not to buy or sell

Properties were confiscated.

Some wives stood against their husbands, so they could keep part of the property for their family use and the requests were granted.

Some left for Canada and made requests for their families to follow and that was granted.

1778, May

Law was changed so that constables did not have to take away personal property from the families, and estates were brought to court so there could be arrangements made to take care of the wife and children, and the payment of debts.

Some absconded to Lord How and their families were also removed to Lord How, and their estates were secured by the townsmen.

When 2 women had been jailed they let them go home on the request that their families were suffering because they were not there to take care of them.

Many Loyalists switched sides in the fight and became good Patriots in the latter years of the war. Some did not. Some took off to Canada and lived out their lives there. Apparently John Fitch may have relented as he still had his personal property in 1786 and was able to sell it and move to PA to start again on 242 acres. We do not know for sure he was the Tory John Fitch but a lot of his friends and acquaintances as noted above were among that list so very possible.

Gideon Lockwood and brother, Albert, were brought before the General Assembly. No information on just how the cases went has been given, but were on a list of many who were brought before the General Assembly. We know that Gideon did sign up with his team of horses for 3 months during the war and served some time, but also note that another went in his place for a part of the time so Gideon may not have spent the whole 3 months. He was taking supplies to various places using his own team. His wife applied for his pension.

Also note that Ephriam Lockwood, another brother, went over to the British and left his wife, and children to do so. He may have returned, later, but we find that he was dead by the time his father died in 1783 and his family was named as "Children of Ephraim, deceased" in the will.

JOHN FITCH, son of THEOPHILUS FITCH (his oldest son) was given UPPER CLAPBOARD HILL property in Canaan Paris, on Feb. 1767

He bought 20 acres of SILVERMINE from Jacob St. John in 1770
He and brother JOSEPH sold BARREN MARSH CREEK to Isaac Richards in 1789
Sold HOMESTEAD LAND, UPPER CLAPBOARD HILLS, and SILVERMINE to Boutons in 1794
Mother, Lydia quitclaims her part in HOMESTEAD to Boutons in 1794.

THEOPHILUS died in 1783.

These places are mostly north and east of Norwalk. Green Farms is along the sound and East. Fairfield is considered a town East of Norwalk, and also a county including the whole area clear up to Danbury and all of the above. Hopefully the maps will show the other places.

The LOCKWOODS lived in this area, John and Elizabeth Lockwood were married in a Weston Church.

So one of our John Fitch's lived in this area, or at least held property there. We don't know at this time if NATHANIEL moved away from the NEW CANAAN area or if he lived his life there. It would appear that JOHN, SON OF THEOPHILUS, did not move away during his early life as he sold out in 1794. The JOHN FITCH of the East properties was there in the 1760s.

NATHANIEL FITCH

Given lands in New Canaan by the will of their Grandfather, Thomas Fitch as follows:

"I will and bequeath unto my two grandchildren, namely JOHN and NATHANIEL FITCH, parcells of land lying Eastward towards Sacotuck Riveer, consisting of the following lands, bogg, meadow and swamp, the quantity consisting of about 50 acres. The quantity and bounds expressed in the Towne Record, and said land to be divided equally between them in common. Some time after my decease, I do bequeath unto my said Grandchildren, John, my fowling small gunn bolt and sword." Thomas Fitch died in 1704 so John would be about 27 years old and Nathaniel would be about 22 years old.

JOHN FITCH, I, AND Rebecca Lindall, received most of the rest of the estate as there was no other son at that time. Thomas had died before his father but his son Thomas received land in the "Neck" and the "Cow Division". Grandfather to Grandson.

JOHN FITCH, and Rebecca received his dwelling house, barn, home lot as expressed in the towne record. Also all my lands both upland and meadow lying in the planting field on ye other side of ye River, also my lands without fence, laid out or to be divided. Also my commonage. This may have all been in the town proper, and the outlying lands went to JOHN AND NATHANIEL, sons of John and Rebecca.

The will of JOHN FITCH and Lydia Bushnell gave land to 3 sons, MATTHEW, THEOPHILUS, AND BUSHNELL. No mention of a son John in the will.

The boys received divisions of the same parcels of land as follows:

Lands lying beside the Homestead land in New Canaan runs along Capt. Carter's lands land on CANOE HILL near to Deacon John Bennedicts land
Huckleberry Hills

THEOPHILUS received 7 acres on the East side of CLAPBOARD HILL, in what was commonly called Long Ridge, plus the above.

BUSHNELL also received some of CLAPBOARD HILL and also some land called Salt Meadow, Canfield's Pond, plus the above.

NEW CANAAN is North and West of Norwalk proper. LONG RIDGE is above Stamford.

Notes

Jacob Shaffer

Apparently Jacob Shaffer was the first of the family to come to America. He was against his son Andrew fighting in the Revolutionary War. But Andrew went to war anyway and Jacob was said to have disowned him. May be truth or may be rumor. Possibly came over on the ship "Duke of Bedford" about 1750. On the ship's list may be found the names of Valentine S., Conrad S., and Andrew. Something more to look for. At least this appears to be the way it reads. I have not seen it. But it is probable that other members of the family came with the Jacob. Especially when you look at the amount of Shaffer names in PA that seem to all carry down the same names, like Andrew and Valentine. Amazing how many Valentine Shaffers were out there. But perhaps these might be brothers of Jacob. especially if the list of children below is valid. One name that does carry on down is Catherine and also some Marys but they are so common as to be found in most families.

From Linda Simpson she has seen information that Jacob and his unknown wife had 6 children and they were Dennis, Thomas, Mary, Andrew, Marjory, and Catharine. She said the name was spelled Shafer with one "f". Did not say where she found it but does not know if it is accurate or not.

There was a Jacob, born about 1739 in Germany who married Katherine Winterode in PA and they had Nancy, John, Christian, Henry, Catherine. And their son John had a Samuel, Jacob, John Jr., Catherine, Margaret, Sophia, Mary, Andrew L., Elizabeth, and Sarah. They ended up in Mahoning Co., Ohio, which is not all that far from Stark.

Also an Andrew Shaffer born Jan. 31, 1757 at Haggerstown, Washington, Maryland who married Martha Stroup about 1780 and they had a son Andrew born August 8, 27, 1784 at Haggerstown. His parents are listed as Theobald Shaffer and Catherine Kissinger. And there was also an Andrew Shaffer born Dec. 6, 1819 called of Stark Co., Ohio. He is no doubt in the family somewhere. If this was the Andrew that the researcher found to give our Andrew a birthyear of 1757, then we probably need to look again. Also pension says that Andrew was born in 1753. Then his father would have to be born 1733 or before to be his father (probably). Perhaps we need to find the list of the ship on which Jacob came over. For now will say there are many out there with the names of Andrew and Valentine. And there is still much work to be done on this family.

Notes

Valentine Lafayette Shaffer

Valentine Shaffer was elected county commissioner in the year 1906.....page 545 Griswold

My cemetery record says 1929 and I believe that to be true as my mother told me that I had actually been to the funeral of Valentine Shaffer. Mom was pregnant with me when they went to his funeral in Monroeville, so guess I was there and that would have to be in 1929. Originally I had a date of Nov. 11, 1911 and at this time do not know where that came from. Needs some investigation. The date is correct probably as it comes from the burial records found in ACPL.

The same records call him a "Soldier". He would be almost too young to be in the Civil War unless he enlisted at 13 or 14. Perhaps he was a soldier in the Spanish-American War in 1898. Need to find out where he served.

Notes

Rudolph Miller Sr.

Possible 1840 Census for Rudolph: Washington County, Mari. Twp .....#270.

It would appear that the family came from Germany between 1835 and 1841 when grandson Jacob was reported to have been born in Washington County. Both Rudolph, Jr. and Julia were reported to have been born in Germany. Julia born 1835. (Rudolph, Julia, and Jacob children of Henry and Elizabeth)

.....

Handwritten family history says that the great grandparents were born in West Phalia, Germany, Lengrich and came to Indiana in 1830. They brought with them 2 sons, Henry and Jacob, and 2 girls. Probably Catherine and Elizabeth. All came from Germany. The account says the girls were twins, but the census reports don't seem to agree.
